Gentlemen:

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

It seems that we have another suspected sex case on our hands. Robert J. Carson, 28 years old, of 198 Court Street, Binghamton, New York last year was dismissed as a Boy's Club executive because of suspected misbehavior in dealing with some of the youngsters in the Boy's Club. After Mr. Carson's dismissal he became a teacher in East Junior High School here in Binghamton, and after one semester he was dismissed there. Now it seems that he and the boy or boys that he formerly associated with at the Boy's Club have joined Troop 166, sponsored by Calvin Coolidge School.

The information was given to me concerning Mr. Carson by the Boys' Club executive, [REDACTED], of the Binghamton Boys' Club. We have alerted the chairman of the troop committee, Mr. Harvey Coloney of 34 Riverside St., Binghamton, N. Y. Mr. Coloney informs us by telephone that he, Mr. Carson, has been dismissed as assistant Scoutmaster of the troop.

Sincerely,

D. D. Crisp
